

Entrepreneurship Development Training for Young women

About Training

As to Satyodaya's experiences in the field, the plantation and village, women have been subjected to poor knowledge of entrepreneurship than men. And also they constitute the poorest and the least powerful segment of their communities. Taking in to consideration of this situation, with the financial assistance of the organization with similar objectives, Satyodaya designs programmes to enable these women to take their long-delayed place in society.

Covering Subject's

- Entrepreneurship and identifying Entrepreneurship Qualities.
- Business Opportunities identifying and selecting.
- Achieving the target of Entrepreneurship and make the future plan.

Lecture Panel

- D.M.J.S Dhanapala – Asst Director Small Business Development Unit AGA Office Kandy.
- Mrs Priyanthi Perera – Asst Director Small Business Development Unit AGA Office Kandy.
- Mrs Manoja – Small Business Development Unit AGA Office Kandy.
- Mr Shanrha Manthilake - Small Business Development Unit AGA Office Kandy.

